

BUILT ENVIRONMENT

LEED: EXECUTIVE OVERVIEW

The LEED Project Executive Overview webinar will introduce you to the key components of the LEED and provide an overview of the certification process to enable your organization to make an informed decision regarding pursuing LEED certification.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: REGISTERING & KICKING OFF YOUR LEED PROJECT

This webinar will walk you through the project documentation and review process from registration to certification, highlighting nuances that are commonly missed or misunderstood across LEED projects as seen by LEED Reviewers.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: DOCUMENTING INTEGRATIVE PROCESS, SUSTAINABLE SITE AND LOCATION & TRANSPORTATION CATEGORY

There are seven credit categories in the LEED Rating systems in which you can document criteria and attempt points. In each of these categories, there are prerequisites or credits that are regularly submitted with documentation issues that can be easily avoided with a better understanding of the requirements. This session will focus on the Integrative Process (IP), Sustainable Sites (SS), and Location and Transportation (LT) credit categories.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: DOCUMENTING THE WATER EFFICIENCY CATEGORY

There are seven credit categories in the LEED Rating systems in which you can document criteria and attempt points. In each of these categories, there are prerequisites or credits that are regularly submitted with documentation issues that can be easily avoided with a better understanding of the requirements. This session will focus on the Water Efficiency (WE) category.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: DOCUMENTING THE ENERGY AND ATMOSPHERE CATEGORY

There are seven credit categories in the LEED Rating systems in which you can document criteria and attempt points. In each of these categories, there are prerequisites or credits that are regularly submitted with documentation issues that can be easily avoided with a better understanding of the requirements.

This session will focus on the Energy and Atmosphere (EA) category.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: DOCUMENTING THE INDOOR ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND INNOVATION CATEGORIES

There are seven credit categories in the LEED Rating systems in which you can document criteria and attempt points. In each of these categories, there are prerequisites or credits that are regularly submitted with documentation issues that can be easily avoided with a better understanding of the requirements.

This session will focus on the Indoor Environmental Quality (IEQ) and Innovation (IN) categories.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED:

LEED: DOCUMENTING THE MATERIALS & RESOURCES CATEGORY

There are seven credit categories in the LEED Rating systems in which you can document criteria and attempt points. In each of these categories, there are prerequisites or credits that are regularly submitted with documentation issues that can be easily avoided with a better understanding of the requirements.

This session will focus on the Materials & Resources Category.

DATE OFFERED:
LOCATION:
COST:
DATE COMPLETED: